Editorial Paragraphs.

The American Newspaper Reporter tells of thirty new journals, and seven suspensions last week.

A ton of steel makes a million steel pens.

French journalism has almost played out. The defeat by the Prussians, and a savage civil war, pretty satisfactorily explain the matter. Journalism has no cause to feel ashamed.

"Nym Crinkle," the art critic of the New York World, is a Mr. Wheeler.

The Reporter does up the New York art critics. It says Winter, of the Tribune, is a delicate rooster. Cooney, of the Herald, plays the tom-cats crazy with his flute. Dewey, of the Commercial Advertiser, can beat Colfax smiling. Sedley, of that animated tombstone, the Times, gets up theatrical epitaphs.

Rachel, the great French tragedienne who never married, erected a monument to her daughter, with the epitaph: "In memory of Lucie, daughter of Miss Rachel." Woodhull & Claflin's Weekly calls this Rachel's "instinctive bravery." South, we would call it by a different name. Lechery gains no prestige because connected with genius, and its want of shame may be brave, but that don't make it moral.

It is thought the Senate will cackle over the High Joint treaty three or four weeks. Dozens of Senators are pregnant with seven-league speeches, and they must come, or there will be trouble.

It is rumored that Commodore Vanderbilt offers to buy out the Erie Railroad from Fisk and Gould. He offers to take the stock at par and give a three million bonus to them. If Fisk, with his possible perquisites, takes that bagatelle of a bonus, we shall never more stick his name in this paper as a sharp scamp.

The Louisville street car authorities have opened the cars to the negroes. Ladies now walk.

The National West Point Military Academy has become but a sort of mob.

At St. Louis Pilot Temple, the trotter, beat Cotton Picker, the pacer. Time, 2:24½.

Memphis has received 215,463 more bales than last year, or nearly double.

West Tennessee has caterpillars.

The Chinese authorities are preparing for war.

Russia has an insurrection in her Central Asia provinces.

In Massachusetts the House defeated women suffrage by 68 to 68. Close shaving that. If the women can't honey up one of those 68 negatives by next session, they are not the wo d-pullers we take them to be.

West Virginia has knocked the word "white" from her Constitution and killed disabilities by a large majority.

The Radical quid nunes are owning up that Grant will be renominated by that party for President. Of course. Until a more pliable jackass can be found, Grant is their most available man. No other sort of man will suit.

Pere Hyacinth is in Rome.

GEORGIA.

The Atlanta and Richmond Air-Line Railroad has taken the contract for carrying the mails from this place to Atlanta, daily, and will commence on the first day of July. [Gainesville Eagle.

On Monday last we had the pleasure of a visit from that prince of agents, Col. T. M Acton, of THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, who was in our city on business connected with that "sprightly paper." The Colonel is a "live" man, upon the "broad gauge" principle, and is a fair specimen of how things are gotten up in that office.—Gainesville Eagle.

The Eagle says Gainesville is going to have high jinks when the railroad gets there. All sorts of a jolly picnic will be frolicked. The committees have been appointed.

Mrs. Wm. H. Stovall dead, says the Madison Examiner.

The Georgian says Spalding county has a youth who imbibes benzine, goes to Griffin, snorts about that he is "bull of the woods," "a hyena," and other clever things, until an exhilirated people stick him in the calaboose. Mr. N. C. Monroe lost a child that was born the same hour and day, and died the same hour and day of the year as his grandfather, the Hon. N. C. Monroe.

The Griffin Star says the people are raising clover.

Benjamin P. Wait suddenly dead in Savannah. The steamer Nick King was boarded and seized by armed negroes and the captain made to pay a small amount of money to one of them who had been a hand on the boat and discharged for theft. The steamer Tonawanda, that left Savannah for Philadelphia, had a Miss S. B. Fowler on board dressed in breeches. She had been to see Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe. Some scribblers in Savannah are fighting the Atlanta and Savannah Railroad. The quo warranto cases against B. E. Bee, Tax Receiver, and John Williamson, County Treasurer of Chatham, have been argued before the Federal Court. This is an effort to oust these gentlemen from office under the 14th amendment.

Saw Some Garters.—During the late damp spell we chanced to see a pair of gold garters surmounted with a solitaire diamond, which, for splendor and costliness, far surpassed anything ever beheld by one whose experience in such matters is as limited as ours. For the benefit of younger and more susceptible men than ourselves, like the crimson pink of the Savannah News, for instance, we would state that these peculiar bracelets were exhibited to us by a jeweler in the city.—Macon Telegraph.

THE CELEBRATED HAMPTON ROADS CONFERENCE.

THE HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS SAYS THERE MUST BE A MISTAKE IN THE NEW REVELATION IN THE MONTGOMERY MAIL.

LIBERTY HALL, | CRAWFORDSVILLE, GA., May 15, 1871.

Editor Constitution: I notice in the columns of THE CONSTITUTION, of Wednesday's date, the following article:

"A NEW REVELATION.

"A late issue of the Montgomery Mail has "an article in reference to what really transpired at the Hampton Roads Conference, "which has not found a place in the official "account of that affair, and, pertinent thereto, makes the following statement:

"'We have our information from a gentleman of the highest respectability, who had it from one of the Confederate Commissioners in person, that the single word "union" was written by Mr. Lincoln at the head of a blank sheet of paper, and that the Confederate Commissioners were told to write beneath that word their own terms, and that those terms would be accepted.' Mr. Stephens and Mr. John A. Campbell favored the acceptance of the terms thus offered, but having been lodged in by instructions that they were not at liberty to transgress, the last hope of the South withered with the destruction of that comparatively insignificant scrap of paper."

"This statement disagrees with Mr. Stephens' account of that celebrated Conference as given in his great work on the late "war. We doubt the accuracy of the Mail's "revelation.

"Will not Mr. Stephens respond to a general desire to know what amount of fact "there is in the above?

I have not seen the article published in the Montgomery Mail, to which you refer, and from which the extract quoted by you is taken; but in response to your call on me for information on the subject, I very promptly as well as unhesitatingly say that there must be some mistake in the New Revelation. The substance of what occurred and passed on both sides at the Hampton Roads Conference, is very accurately set forth, not only in outline, but in detail, in the 2d volume of my work on the war, to which you refer. It will be found on pages 599 and 619 inclusive. No proposition of the character alluded to by the writer in the Montgomery Mail is there mentioned, and I feel quite confident that none such was made. Indeed, no word was written by any one at that conference. Neither pen nor pencil was used by any one of the parties on the respective sides, for any purpose whatever connected with the conference during the entire interview. So there must be a mistake about the writing of the word "Union."

What Mr. Lincoln said about the "sine qua non" with him of a pledge for the ultimate restoration of the Union, as a condition precedent to his entertaining or considering the subject matter contemplated by the Confederate Commissioners in asking the conference, is therein also set forth very fully in substance. No material word or idea is omitted.

But in nothing that was said by the Commissioners, or either of them, was any reference whatever made to their instructions.

I will here further state for the information of your readers, who may not have seen my statement of the facts connected with this celebrated conference, as well as to its origin and its objects, as what transpired at it, about which so many errors exist in the popular mind—that the Confederate Commissioners had no written instructions other than what was contained in their letter of appointment, which has been extensively published North as well as South, nor had they any verbal instructions inconsistent with the letter of their appointment.

All who wish full and accurate information upon the whole subject are referred to the book before mentioned.

Yours truly,
ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

Southern Baptist Convention.

THE CHINA MISSION—THE CARTERSVILLE CONVENTION—SUNDAY SCHOOLS—GEORGIA AHEAD IN SUNDAY SCHOOL LIBERALITY—COLORED PEOPLE IN THE SOUTH AND THEIR EDUCATION—A BOSTON MAN OPPOSES NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

THURSDAY—MORNING SESSION.

ST. LOUIS, MO., May 12, 1871.

Editor Constitution: At 9 o'clock, A. M., the Convention opened its session with prayer by J. E. Wilcox, of Missouri.

Brother Hartwell was appointed by his China Church to represent them in this body. He was welcomed by the President, and, the Chair leading the body, each one extended to him the right hand of welcome. Brother H. then addressed the meeting, giving an account of his labors in China for the last thirteen years. His report was very interesting and cheering. He states that China Baptists entertain true doctrines in regard to the Foreign Mission cause, believing that no church is up to its full measure of duty to the Risen Savior, until they are doing all within their power to extend the Religion of our Redeemer "into the regions beyond."

A resolution passed unanimously by the Georgia Baptist Convention at its recent session at Cartersville being read (addressed to this body) deprecating the agitation of the question of abandoning the support from Southern Boards, or of uniting in any way with Northern institutions of like character, was referred to an appropriate committee.

A resolution offered by G. W. Samson, D. D., of the District of Columbia, looking to further organic co-operation with Baptists North and East in the work of missions, publications and education, by this body, was, after a short discussion, participated in by Dr. Samson and S. H. Ford, D. D., of Tennessee, with considerable willingness laid on the table.

The eighth annual report of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention was read by the Corresponding Secretary, T. C. Teasdale, D. D., of Memphis. This paper was comprehensive, but tedious reading to us, that while much is being done in the bounds of our convention for the organization and sustaining of Sunday Schools, yet much more ought to be done before our Sunday School Board shall have attained that efficiency already reached by our other Boards. The report futher shows the fact that at the request of the Corresponding Secretary, the American Bible Society of New York has contributed 5,000 copies of Bibles and Testaments for distribution in the South.

This board has collected in the year just closed $19,198 71 to aid the Sunday Schools South. Georgia sends up of this amount $1,514 47, which is considerably more than any other State has done. So Georgia has sustained more liberally than any other State, two out of three, of our Southern boards. The report contained twenty-five pages of closely printed statistics, the Secretary was excused, the reading of them by the President by this pun: "The convention would be opposed to any statistics at this time."

This report was referred to appropriate committees.

The convention took a recess for dinner. Prayer by C. R. Blackall, D. D., of Chicago. So far the meeting is harmonizing in a happy manner, much of the spirit of kindness and love manifests itself among the brethren.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention was called to order by the President, at 2 o'clock P. M. Prayer by Rev. Wm. Henry Strickland, of Georgia.

Report of the treasurer of the convention was read and ordered printed.

The convention went into the election of treasurer and auditor of convention. On counting the ballots, G. W. Norton, of Kentucky, was declared elected treasurer, and N. Long, of Kentucky, auditor.

By resolution of J. B. Tailor, jr., of Virginia, the Chair was requested to appoint a committee of non-ministerial brethren to suggest time and place of next meeting of this body, and also to nominate a brother to preach the next annual sermon.

A communication from C. R. Blockall, D. D., of Chicago, Secretary Home Missionary Society, was read inviting this body to attend their anniversary next week. Convention accepted the invitation by a vote of thanks.

E. T. Winkler, D.D., of South Carolina read a report on the condition of the colored people in the South, recommending our Board of Foreign Missions to engage in the education of pious young colored men, with a view of recruiting our ranks of missionaries to Africa, as it is shown that enquiry is on the increase in the interior of Africa for the missionary and the Bible.

Brother Dodson, of Tennessee, thought it sufficient that we give the colored men an "old field school education," and then send them out to preach. By stopping at common school education we can reach more in numbers, and thus give religion to the mass.

By invitation of the chair, at the request of J. L. Burrows, D.D., of Virginia, Dr. Fulton, of Boston, addressed the convention on the subject of education of freedmen for the missionary. (Dr. Fulton is President of the National Theological Institute for freedmen.) Dr. F. opposes the ballot being given to the freedman or Chinaman until he can read it. He has been soundly berated by Wendell Phillips and other Radicals because he opposes the supremacy of colored men in the South. He believes that neither the North or South freed the slaves, but that God's providence did it. He wants the Southern Baptists to co-operate with the Northern Baptists in the education and conversion of freedmen. He confesses that in this the North can't succeed well unless the South will co-operate with the North.

Dr. S. H. Ford, of Tennessee, objects to working under any banner that combines political and religious objects. He thinks that the Southern Baptists had but one distinct object in view, viz.: the spiritual improvement of freedmen. While he thinks the Northern Baptists, with this latter object in view, also associate with it the political advancement. This latter interest ought to be kept out of sight, leave suffrage and political elevation where God's word had left it.

A. M. Poindexter, D.D., of Virginia, gave a touching account of a visit of his boyhood days' to an old christian negress—spoke tenderly of his old nurse and declared his great desire that we do more for the salvation of freedmen, as he believed he saw the hand of Providence beckoning us on to Africa, dark, benighted Africa.

He hopefully commends this work of enlightening the freedmen to our Board.

On consideration of the extension of missions in other lands, A. T. Spalding, D. D., of Kentucky, reminded the convention of the case of Mexico, as open to our work, and as stretching out their arms to us, and with the Macedonian cry, says, "Come over and help us."

Convention adjourned until to-morrow morning 9 A. M. Prayer by Bro. Doolin, of Missouri. BLAKED.

STRAWBERRIES!

HAVING the disposal of Strawberries raised at Solitude Strawberry Plantation, (Dr. F. D. Thurman, Proprietor,) I shall run SIX STRAWBERRY CARTS during the season, so as to supply the increase in the demand from the office of the city. But, if any should be overlooked, they can get them at the same price, by sending to the Patch, Solitude Strawberry Plantation, on Martin street, in the Third Ward, or at my Store, on Decatur street, opposite Latrange Depot, and my brother's Store on Marietta street, between Broad street and the Post-office.

The berries I sell are carefully selected, and are all fresh and nice. Please be careful to send trusty servants for berries, and not such as will eat of the city. But, if any should be overlooked, they can get them as they do in many instances before they are out of sight.

DEFIES REFUTATION

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.

I. W. AVERY, Editor.

Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:

WEDNESDAY, MAY 17, 1871.

K. K.

The most attrocious instance of Ku-Kluxism has just occurred in North Carolina. A negro preacher was anonymously notified that he must quit preaching or quit stealing hogs.

This vile outrage has been sent by the New York World to the Tribune and to Washington for indignant comment, and armed intervention in the sacred cause of hypocritical robbery.

From Rome.

We learn from a member of the late Episcopal Convention, at Rome, that the liberal sum of $1,600 was contributed in aid of diocesan missionary, at the Missionary meeting on Thursday night last. Columbus was selected as the place for the meeting of the next convention.

The services on Sunday were quite interesting, and sixteen members confirmed. The new organ and the choir sent forth excellent music on the occasion.

The Hampton Roads Conference.

On our first page will be found a letter from the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, denying the correctness of the very remarkable version of the Hampton Roads Conference in the Montgomery Mail some time back, and reproduced by us a few days ago, with a doubt of its reality, and with a request to Mr. Stephens to respond to a general desire to hear from him on the subject. All matters connected with the history of the late war should be correctly given. The day is coming when the motives and the conduct of the South will be matter of historic laudation. Now is the time to correct errors that may chrystalize into accepted facts.

It will be seen that Mr. Stephens denies the correctness of the new revelation. His work on the late war contains a most graphic account in full of this same famous conference, and the chapter forms one of the most interesting, valuable parts of the great book.

We call the attention of our cotemporaries to Mr. Stephens' letter in refutation of this new historic revelation.

Cameron.

The election of Sumner from the chairmanship of the Foreign Committee, and Cameron's substitution in his place, has had a discombobberating effect all around. Sumner was posted, and Cameron isn't, nor does anybody else but Sumner appear to be. Cameron has been cramming like a truant school boy. The following anecdote, if true, will illustrate the humors of Radical triggering:

It is reported that Secretary Fish and Banker Orott Davis, several days ago labored for two hours to give Cameron some idea of what the treaty meant, and that at the end of their explanations they asked him if he understood it well enough to explain its provisions to the Senate, and answer any questions regarding it which might be asked him; he replied that he thought he did, but at the same time in stating that he though the portion relating to the payment of the Alabama claims ought to be stricken out "because," said he, "if the claims of Alabama are paid, why not pay the claims of Louisiana, Georgia, and the other Southern States?" The story goes that this circumstance decided the administration to place the management of the treaty in Morton's hands.

This anecdote spread through the Senate in a rapid humorous manner, being told by one Senator to another until it reached Mr. Cameron's ears several times. He denies the report today, and says he knows very well what the Alabama claims are; that they apply to the Rebel cruiser which was named the Alabama.

Who Butterized the Treaty?

This has become even a greater question than the High Joint treaty itself. The treaty got out. Somebody has said that a copy was offered to the highest bidder, and the New York Tribune come down the heaviest and got it. Who got the money? Was a Senator interested in the transaction? If so, who is he? These grave questions divide the day with the treaty itself.

The Senate, collectively, is very mad. A committee composed of Carpenter, Conkling Trumbull, Sumner and Davis, has been authorized to look into it.

Some Senators think the Senate insulted by the theft. Others think that the Senate insulted the President by permitting the theft. Others thought the fuss very foolish. Others pitched into the newspaper correspondents as if they could perpetrate the robbery without the connivance of grave Senators. Others pretty broadly intimated that it had been allowed to be stolen by the executive, to get it before the people in spite of the Senate. Many are glad it is stolen. The secrecy is removed, and those big speeches can be spread before the world.

The engrossing matter is, who stole the treaty, and it bids fair to become a nations question as famous and practical as who struck Billy Patterson.

The Washington Patriot recalls the following historical parallel:

The last time that the Senate undertook to ascertain who had published a treaty before the injunction of secrecy had been removed was in March, 1848, when the treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo appeared in the New York Herald. John Nugent, then the correspondent of the Herald, refused to say from whom or how he had obtained the copy of the treaty which he published. He was accordingly committed to the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms, and when brought before Judge Cranch, of the United States Circuit Court, by a writ of habeas corpus, the Sergeant-at-Arms stated that he held the prisoner by virtue of a warrant of the Vice-President, in pursuance of certain proceedings of the Senate in executive session, which he could not divulge. So, Nugent remained in custody until the close of the session, when he was released and subsequently he received a good office on the Pacific coast for having held his tongue.

☞ A negro man in Vidalia, the other day, having been found guilty of larceny, by a negro jury, was asked by the Court what he had to say why sentence should not be pronounced upon him. "I've got nothing to say except that I ain't guilty." "But," said the Court, "about that matter there is a wide difference of opinion, as this jury of twelve men say you are guilty." "Well, Mr. Judge," said the prisoner, "you might as well get a dozen ringtailed monkeys to give a man justice as to let him be tried by that jury."

This convulsed the Court, and the prisoner was remanded.—Natchez Democrat.

☞ "Shot through the heart" is a familiar expression in connection with war and battles, but it proves from army statistics to be a rhetorical rather than a literal account of the way soldiers are usually killed. Of 87,822 wounded in our late war, among which 7,072 gunshot wounds of the thorax, 4,759 wounds of the thoracic walls, and 2,308 penetrating wounds of the chest, there were recorded only four cases of gunshot wounds of the heart.

☞ Chas. A. Dana, of the New York Sun, has been sued by the French Consul for libel. Damages laid at $60,000.

DECISIONS
—OF THE— SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA.

Delivered at Atlanta, Tuesday, May 16, 1871.

[REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE CONSTITUTION, BY N. J. HAMMOND, SUPREME COURT REPORTER.]

H. M. Levy, Deputy Sheriff, vs. Twiname & Summers. Rule against the City Sheriff from the City Court of Augusta.

WARNER, J.

When the property of a defendant was sold under a distress warrant for rent due, and the question before the court was whether the proceeds of the sale in the hands of the Sheriff should be paid to the holder of a prior judgment against the defendant, or to the plaintiff in the distress warrant who claimed a lien under a contract for a lease of the premises:

HELD, That the lien specified in the contract between the landlord and tenant, set forth in the record, (not being for the crop raised on the premises) did not take precedence as to payment of an older judgment lien against the defendant: Code 2360.

Judgment affirmed.

Joseph P. Carr, for plaintiff in error.

McLaws & Ganahl, for defendants in error.

Ephriam Ponder vs. James A. McGruder. Complaint, from Burke.

WARNER, J.

When an action was instituted for rent of land by the plaintiff, who rented the premises to the defendant, and it was proved, on the trial, that the plaintiff was trustee for his wife and children, (the trust deed not being in evidence) and that the rents and profits of the land belonged to the plaintiff;

HELD, That the action was properly brought in the name of the plaintiff who rented the premises to the defendant, without declaring that he sued for the rent as trustee.

HELD, ALSO, That the motion for a continuance of the case was properly overruled on the statement of facts contained in the record.

Judgment affirmed.

John J. Jones, for plaintiff in error.

Stephen A. Corker, for defendants in error.

Geo. Bliss & Co., et al., vs. Annie E. Rawson, administratrix.

WARNER, J., dissenting.

Trowbridge, Dwight & Co., with other creditors residing in this State, filed a bill against the administratrix of C. W. Ranson deceased, to marshal the assets of that estate. Trowbridge, Dwight & Co. claiming to be mortgage creditors of the intestate. Mrs. Ranson, the administratrix, filed her answer in the nature of a cross bill, claiming dower, one year's support for herself and a homestead for her children out of the intestates estate, and obtained an injunction against the complainants in the original bill. Trowbridge, Dwight & Co. filed their petition as non-resident creditors, to remove the suit from the State Court to the Circuit Court of the United States under the provisions of the acts of Congress of 1866 and 1867. In my judgment the court below should have granted the order for the removal of the suit, as was held by this court in the Stewart & Cutts vs. Mordecai, 40th Geo. Rep. 1.

George H. Lester and John Hunnicutt, administrators, vs. the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company. Assumpsit from Richmond.

WARNER, J.

The plaintiffs intestate, (Dupree) on the 18th February, 1862, deposited in the Georgia Railroad Bank in coupons and bank notes, the amount of $10,000, to be invested in State bonds. The cashier of the bank acknowledged the receipt of the money, and forwarded to John Jones, the treasurer of the State, a certificate of deposit for that amount to obtain the State bonds for Dupree. Jones, the treasurer, retained the certificate of deposit, and furnished Dupree with only $5,000 of State bonds, and gave him his check on the Georgia Railroad bank for $4,981.95, the balance due on the certificate of deposit held by Jones, the treasurer. According to Dupree's evidence, this check was presented to the bank a short time after it was drawn, and payment thereof offered by the bank in confederate money, which he refused to receive, because his original deposit was made in other money. The cashier and teller of the bank state, that the check was presented for payment on the 10th March, 1864, and payment demanded in treasury notes of the State of Georgia. The officers of the bank offered to pay it in Confederate treasury notes, of which the deposits of the treasurer in the bank was made, up. The plaintiff refused to take Confederate Treasury notes in payment, and retained the check. They have no recollection of ever having seen the check before the day of its presentation, on the 10th of March, 1864. The account of the Treasurer with the bank was closed on the 17th of November, 1863, he having on that day drawn out the balance due him, the officers of the bank having no knowledge of this check being then out standing;

HELD, That inasmuch as the plaintiff's intestate accepted the check of Jones, the Treasurer, for the balance due him on certificate of deposit, the bank was only bound to pay that check in such funds as Jones, the Treasurer, had on deposit therein, and if the holder of that check declined or refused to receive in payment thereof such funds on its presentation, that was not such an appropriation of the funds of the drawer of the check in the hands of the bank to the payment of the plaintiff's debt, as would preclude the bank from paying over to the drawer of the check the balance due him by the bank in close up his account; the plaintiff, by his own act, refused to have the funds of the drawer on deposit in the bank appropriated for the payment of that check conceding that the offer of payment in confederate treasury notes was an acceptance by the bank to pay the check in that currency. The facts of this case do not show such a wanton or fraudulent refusal of the bank to pay the holder of the check in the funds deposited by the drawer thereof as would make the bank liable. Although, we think, the court erred in its charge to the jury in relation to the question of tender, and in relation to other points involved in the case, still the verdict was right under the law applicable to the facts as disclosed by the record and we affirm the judgment of the court below in refusing a new trial.

Judgment affirmed.

Hilliard & King, for plaintiffs in error.

W. H. Hull, for defendants in error.

William Petters vs. the State. False imprisonment from city court of Augusta.

WARNER, J.

When a defendant was indicted for false imprisonment, and found guilty, and a motion for a new trial was overruled by the court; the following facts are disclosed by the record, that the defendant was appointed by the Governor of this State as an agent to receive from the Governor of South Carolina a fugitive from justice under a requisition of the former Governor, on the latter Governor, for the arrest and return of said fugitive to this State, and the alleged false imprisonment is the detention of said fugitive by the defendant as such agent, in this State for a short time, after his arrival within the limits thereof:

HELD, That when a requisition is made by the Executive authority of this State for any person as a fugitive from justice, on the Executive authority of another State, and appoints an agent to receive such fugitive to be transported to this State, it is the duty of such agent, without unreasonable delay, to bring said fugitive before the Governor of this State (unless otherwise directed) in order that said fugitive from justice may be turned over under the order and direction of the Governor to the proper civil authority of the county in which the offense was committed; that if the defendant as such agent had such fugitive from justice in his custody for the purpose of transporting him from the State of South Carolina to the Governor of this State on his requisition, as set forth in the record, without any unreasonable delay, then the defendant was not guilty of false imprisonment in the detention of said fugitive from justice for that purpose, and the court below should have so instructed the jury.

Judgment reversed.

Joseph P. Carr, for plaintiff in error.

Henry Jones, for defendant in error.

A. Bonaud vs. C. Genesi. Injunction, from Macon county.

McCAY, J.

1. The holder of a promissory note as collateral security, who takes it without notice, stands upon the same footing as any other innocent purchaser without notice.

2. It is only when the Judge of the Superior Court has committed some error of law, or has abused his discretion in judging of the facts, that this court will interfere with his judgment in refusing or granting a temporary injunction.

Judgment affirmed.

Phil. Cook and N. A. Smith, for plaintiff in error.

Nisbets & Jackson and Hawkins & Burke, for defendants in error.

State of Georgia, ex rel., Peter Collins vs. E. Byrd, Sheriff. Mandamus, from Burke.

McCAY, J.

Where a sheriff by mistake sold property on the 1st Tuesday in May, but discovered the mistake before the money was paid by the holder;

HELD, That he could not be compelled by mandamus to make a deed and deliver possession to the bidder, on his tender of the amount of his bid.

Judgment affirmed.

Stephen A. Corker & John D. Ashton, for plaintiff in error.

John J. Jones, for defendant in error.

George Bliss & Co., et al., vs. A. E. Rawson. Motion to remove cause to United States Circuit Court.

McCAY, J.

Where several citizens and residents of the State of New York, with a citizen and resident of Georgia filed a bill in equity, in one of the courts of this State, against a citizen of Georgia who was an administratrix of an intestate's estate, charging a maladministration, and praying the court to direct the administration and cause the assets to be paid out in their order, according to the claims against them; and an order was taken on the motion of the complainants making all the creditors parties plaintiff to the bill, and directing them to bring in their claims, and the administratrix answered the bill, setting up, among other things, that the estate was insolvent, the claims intricate and conflicting, and praying a marshaling of the assets, and on her motion the creditors were restrained from bringing separate suits, and required to await the marshaling prayed for; and the non-resident plaintiffs moved under the act of Congress of ——, 1867, and the acts of which it is amendatory, to remove their cause to the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Georgia:

HELD, 1st, That the case made in the record is one in which the rights of the non-resident plaintiffs, in their controversy with the defendant, cannot be adjudicated without the presence of the complainants, who are resident citizens of Georgia.

2d. That the acts of Congress for the removal of causes from the State Courts to the Circuit Courts of the United States, do not provide for the removal of a cause, by one of several non-resident plaintiffs, who is a co-plaintiff with citizens of Georgia, except in cases where the controversy between the non-resident plaintiffs and the defendant can be settled without the presence of plaintiffs who are resident citizens of this State.

Judgment affirmed.

Hines & Hobbs, Vason & Davis, for plaintiffs in error.

Wright & Warren, for defendant in error.

Stonewall Jackson Loan and Building Association vs. Lewis Thompson, et al. Distribution of money, from Richmond.

McCAY, J.

The act of 1869, declaring the dignity of mechanics' and laborers' liens, and providing a summary mode for their enforcement is not retraction so far as to give them a preference over a specific lien by mortgage made by the debtor before the passage of the act.

The lien of mechanics and laborers is a general one on all the property of the employers, and is to be enforced, as steamboat liens, so far as the steamboat lien law is applicable to the circumstances, and no specific property need be described in the alldavit or warrant.

These liens are of the same dignity as other liens of the class for which summary remedies are provided, and they are superior to all other liens, even of prior date, vesting since the passage of the act of 1869.

Judgment reversed.

McLaws & Ganahl, for plaintiffs in error.

Barnes & Cumming, H. Clay Foster, Hilliard & King, for defendants in error.

Austell, Inman & Co., vs. David. B. Howard. Injunction, from Webster.

McCAY, J.

Where an application was made to the Chancellor in Chambers for an injunction, which was refused, and the complainant tendered a bill of exceptions to the Judge who signed the same, which was duly filed and served, and transmitted, under the act of 1870, to this court, then in session, and forty days before its adjournment, for the complainant failed to file his original bill of complaint in the clerk's office of the Superior Court, to which it was returnable, and said clerk certifies to this court that there is not and has not been any bill of file in said office, and no record is certified until the last day of this term, the case will be dismissed.

A. W. Hammond & Son, for plaintiff in error.

Newman & Harrison, for defendant in error.

Wm. J. Vason vs. South Carolina Railroad Company, et. al., proceeding to abate nuisance. From Richmond.

McCAY, J.

1. The use of steam engines, to draw trains of cars over the street railroad, laid down by the Augusta and Summerville Railroad Company, through Washington street, in the city of Augusta, is expressly authorized by acts of the Legislature of this State, and by the contracts and ordinances of the city of Augusta, and being so authorized the running of said trains cannot be abated as a public nuisance, under part 3, 223 chapter, first of the Revised Code of this State, even though such use "tend to the immediate annoyance of the citizens in general."

2. Whether the court of equity will now restrain the unreasonable exercise of said privilege, so as to interfere with the ordinary use of the street, by the citizens, as not within the scope of the privilege granted by the Legislature, and whether property holders upon the street, who are damaged by the use of the same, even within the scope of the legislative grant, are questions which cannot be made in a proceeding to abate the use complained of as a nuisance and upon these questions this court expresses no opinion.

Wm. J. Vason & James S. Hook, for plaintiff in error.

Wm. F. Gould, Frank H. Miller & A. R. Wright, for defendants in error.

Morris Kohn vs. G. B. Lovett, et al. Injunction, from Floyd.

LOCHRANE, C. J.

When A brought his suit against B for damages received from falling into an excavation on B's lot, removed from the public street some 80 or 90 feet, and under the evidence and charge of the court the jury found for A $2,000, and B, by his counsel, moved for a new trial which was overruled, and a bill of exceptions sued out, and certified by the Judge, who misdated the certificate, and the case was dismissed in the Supreme Court on this ground only, and afterwards B filed his bill for injunction against the collection of the judgment and for a new trial, and alleged such facts as showed the mistake as to date, was not owing to the negligence of B's counsel, and as exhibits to said bill the original records and proceedings in the case, from which it appeared there was a meritorious case entitling B to a hearing, and the Judge below dissolved a tenporary injunction granted upon the hearing of the bill, answer and affidavits, etc.

HELD, That under the facts of the case, that the Court erred in not retaining the injunction, inasmuch as the dismissal of the case in this Court, was predicated upon a mistake of the Judge below, whose duty it was to have put the proper date to his certificate and operated as a surprise to the parties, and the rights of the parties under the pleadings, entitled them to a hearing upon the merits.

Judgment reversed.

Dunlap Scott and T. J. Alexander, for plaintiff in error.

Underwood & Rowell, for defendant in error.

W. M. Moses vs. James T. Flewellen. Injunction, from Muscogee.

LOCHRANE, C. J.

A fi. fa. obtained in 1867, in favor of D. H. Baldwin & Co., was levied on the land of Flewellen, and the property sold in March, 1869. Before the sale Flewellen notified the Sheriff that he would move to open a judgment held by Bradley, which was of older date, before June, 1865, which he had. Moses by transfer became the purchaser of the property, and also of the two judgment fi. fas.; there being no motion made at the ensuing term of the court to open the Bradley judgment, under the Relief Act of 1868, Moses demanded the money in the Sheriff's hands to be applied first to it, which he did, crediting the balance on the younger or Baldwin fi. fa.; then it was levied for the balance upon Flewellen's plantation in Quitman county. This bill was filed and injunction moved to stop the sale under the levy, and the main ground of equity relied on grows out of the fact that the proceedings to scale the Bradley judgment were still pending and undisposed of at the time this disposition of the money took place. It appears the papers were filed, but not docketed by the clerk, and that the announcement by the Judge at the term that he would not take up cases under the Relief Act, prevented Flewellen from making his motion at that time. His bill was that he has a good defense, etc., and presents the fact of notice to the parties, and insists upon the injustice of appropriating the $7,000 raised from the sale in the manner set out. Upon the hearing of bill and answer, the Judge granted the injunction requiring bond:

HELD, Under the repeated rulings of this Court at the present term, the original jurisdiction over granting or refusing injunctions is vested by law in the court below, and it is only in cases where there has been an abuse of the discretion—that is, to say an error in law committed by the Judge below in granting or refusing an injunction—that this Court will interfere, and under the facts in this case we are satisfied the court has not abused the discretion vested in him by granting the injunction as prayed.

Judgment affirmed.

Moses & Downing and M. H. Blandford, for plaintiff in error.

Ingram & Crawford, for defendant in error.

City Council of Augusta vs. Joseph B. Ramsey. Complaint, from City Court of Augusta.

LOCHRANE, C. J.

Where by a military order under the reconstruction acts of Congress a Mayor and City Council had been appointed for the city of Augusta, and such Mayor and Council elected under the ordinances of the city Joseph B. Ramsey as Lieutenant of Police for the term of one year, and before the expiration of the year the Legislature of this State provided for an election for Mayor and Aldermen in said city which was held in pursuance of such act of the legislature and such officer duly installed, and after such election and organization the Mayor and Aldermen elected other officers to discharge the municipal duties, and declined the services of the said Ramsey and he brought suit against the city for his salary for the alleged unexpired term, and the court below (the question of law and fact having been submitted to him for his judgment) held the city liable for such salary:

HELD, That the court below erred in the judgment pronounced in this case, and that the Mayor and Council appointed under the order of Major General Pope, under the provisions of the reconstruction acts, having been superceded by the Mayor and Council elected in pursuance of law, such displacement of them carried with it the parties elected to office by them, and that their official functions ceased with the power which gave them existence as soon as other officers were elected to their places, and was not such an election to office as could perpetuate to the office a longer term than that held by the appointees themselves under the military order and for the exigency, ad interim which placed them in power.

Judgment reversed upon the ground the court erred in holding the plaintiff below entitled to recover under the facts in this case.

A. R. Wright, for plaintiff in error.

Jas. S. Hook, for defendant in error.

A. J. Bridwell vs. Robert McNair et al. Refusal of an injunction, from Richmond.

LOCHRANE, C. J.

Where the Judge below refused an injunction on the following statement of facts:

Bridwell bought from McNair a tract of land in Richmond county in 1866, taking bond for title, and giving his two notes for $2,000 each in payment, a partial payment was made upon the purchase, and subsequently Bridwell alleging his inability to comply, an arbitration was had, and the referees rescinded the contract of purchase, setting off the amount paid against the rent, and in 1870, Bridwell having failed to comply with the judgment of the arbitration, McNair filed his bill in equity for specific performance, etc., and no answer was made, and the complainant took the usual order pro confesso, and a verdict was rendered by the jury decreeing the land to be given up, etc., the usual writ of possession issued and was in the hands of the Sheriff, when Bridwell filed his present bill, alleging that he had been prevented from making his defense in the original case by the fraud, deceit and artifice of McNair, and that he had placed improvements over the land, which were not the subject matter of adjustment by the arbitrator, there being no allegation of McNair being insolvent, and McNair answers to the bill denies the allegations, and several affidavits were appended to the bill and answer in support respectively of each, and by which it appeared that the present complainant sought to show an attempt at settlement, promises to meet for the purpose, etc., and compromise or arrange the matter out of court, and denial by facts stated, etc.

HELD, Under the facts in this case, it was not error in the court below to refuse an injunction. The original jurisdiction to grant or refuse injunctions is vested by law in the court below, and it is only in cases where the facts show in the opinion of this court an abuse of the discretion, that such judgment of the court will be set aside, the legal discretion properly vested in the court having original jurisdiction, and this court will recognise the exercise of that legal discretion with no capricious criticisms, but only in cases where an error in law has been committed by the Judge granting or refusing injunctions, will we interfere.

Judgment affirmed.

A. R. & A. H. Wright, for plaintiff in error.

Wm. A. Walton, for defendant in error.

Branch, Sons & Co., plaintiffs in error, vs. J. A. Ansley, defendant in error. Complaint from Richmond.

LOCHRANE, C. J.

Where a motion was made for a new trial on the ground that the verdict was contrary to evidence and was overruled by the court, and the record shows the case was fairly submitted to the jury, and there is sufficient evidence to sustain their finding:

HELD, Under the previous rulings of this court, we will not interfere to set aside the verdict or grant a new trial when the case has been properly submitted to the jury, and there is evidence in the record to sustain the verdict, and the court below has refused a new trial.

Judgment affirmed.

Barnes & Cumming, for plaintiffs in error.

Frank H Miller, for defendant in error.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Mrs. Julia Tyler Spencer, daughter of President John Tyler, is dead.

Sheridan interviewed the Executive to-day, previous to resuming the command of the Department of Missouri, with his headquarters at Chicago.

It is stated that Reverdy Johnson urges the ratification of the treaty.

It is stated that Fish is negotiating a treaty with England for the extradition for all crimes except petty larceny.

The Senate was in executive session to-day.

Nominations—Nicholas Fish, New York, Assistant Secretary of the Legation at Berlin; George A. Gordon, Assessor for the First District of Texas; Jas. Shepard, Collector for St. Mary's, Ga; Robert Balling, Assessor for the Second District of Virginia.

Nothing elicited by the committee regarding the premature publication of the treaty.

The Revenue Commissioner at Pleasanton has issued a circular instructing the Assessors and Collectors to act in accordance with the Attorney General's decision regarding the income and dividend of taxes for the five months ending December 31, 1871.

Judge Robert Rose of Texas, was found dead in his bed. It is supposed he died of heart disease.

The Senate, in secret session, passed resolutions directing Messrs. White and Ramsdale, correspondents of the New York Tribune, to be arrested and brought to the bar of the Senate, to answer for a contempt in refusing to answer from whom they obtained and whether they paid for a copy of the treaty of Washington, which they procured and caused to be published last Thursday in that paper. These gentlemen, in their testimony before the select committee on this subject last night, explicitly declared that they did not obtain a copy either from a Senator or any officer of that body.

The accounting officers of the Treasury have issued orders to immediately close up the accounts of district tax commissioners employed in the States lately in insurrection. There are some $3,000,000 unaccounted for and some hundred persons directly interested, not including bondsmen.

GEORGIA.

SAVANNAH, May 16.—At a public meeting held to-day, the Mayor and Aldermen were authorized to order an election to be held on the twenty-fifth inst., to decide if the city will or will not subscribe five hundred thousand dollars to the Atlanta and Savannah Railroad.

It is understood that he goes to New York to-morrow to carry out the suggestions of the Tax-payers' Convention plan for strengthening the financial position of South Carolina.

FRANCE.

VERSAILLES, May 16.—The bombardment of the walls of Paris continues uninterrupted to-day, with no important results. The assembly appointed a committee to report on the Frankfort treaty.

It is expected that the cession of territory will provoke severe criticism.

PARIS, May 16.—The communists sortied last night, and found the Versaillists strongly posted in Bois Du Boulogne and forced a retreat with heavy loss. The Versaillists continues around the ramparts from Porte Du Jour, and the Porte Maliat. The Versaillists have bridged the Seine at Portreux and brought over much artillery.

The Cri Du Peuple says that chemicals are prepared with which to annihilate the Versaillists when they assault the ramparts.

LATER—The attempts to overthrow the column in the Place Van Dorne has proved ineffectual.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The pay of enlisted men in the army will, in accordance with an act of Congress, be reduced three dollars per month after June 30th next. This saves $1,500,000 annually.

It is considered that the President's proclamation covers all necessary action for the present under the Ku-Klux bill. Further action will follow the emergencies.

It is expected the order for remodeling the military districts will not be issued until fall.

Up to the last hour nothing definite has been heard from Paris.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 16.—After all the day's trial, only two more jurors were obtained in the Foster case.

FRANCE.

PARIS, May 16.—The Commune announce the repulse of the Versaillists at Chatillon, Moulin Pierre and Moulin Saquet on Monday night. A vigorous engagement extended from Porte Dauphine to Maillot. The Versaillists were repulsed with great loss.

It is rumored that the Communists have evacuated Fort Montrouge.

The Communists hold 20,000 well armed men in reserve.

SOME young ladies complain that they cannot raise a flame. Not so with the young lady the other night, whose bright eyes caused a lamp to go into eclipse. The light of her eyes was too brilliant for that of the Lamp

THE picnic of Winona Cold Water Temple comes off on Saturday next. The children meet at the Lodge room Saturday morning at 6½ o'clock. A committee has been appointed to take charge of all children whose parents do not go. A brass band will be in attendance.

Dr. W. H. Tutt, of Augusta, we have known long and intimately as a gentleman of irreproachable character, high-toned and honorable in all his actions. And what he claims for his medicines may be relied upon as founded in fact, and not asserted solely for the purpose of selling them. See card in another column.

THE jury, in the case of Dr. Harrison Westmoreland, charged with assault with intent to murder Dr. Redwine, in the Fulton Superior Court, yesterday, returned a verdict of guilty, but recommended him to the mercy of the court. Judge Hopkins will probably sentence Dr. Westmoreland to-day.

"POVERTY is very inconvenient." Such has been the general opinion, and may be the opinion of the gentleman in a neighboring town who rent his ox cart a mile out and then walked out and rode in it to a neighbor's. Returning, he got out about the same distance from town and walked in.

ONE of the Baltimore papers announced that Rev. W. T. Beantly, D. D., of this city, had been called to the charge of a Baptist Church in that city, and won't soon enter upon the discharge of his duties. This is erroneous. Dr. Brantly has been called but has not accepted it. It is uncertain whether he will do so. At any rate, Dr. Brantly is too much endeared to the Baptists of Georgia to be given up without an effort to retain him.

WILSON'S IMPROVED BURGLAR ALARM GUN.—This gun is beyond doubt the strangest thing we have seen for some time. If a burglar goes into a room where it is and touches one of the strings attached to it, he is bound to be shot. It can be placed in an orchard and it will answer the same purpose. Mr. Wilson, of South Carolina, the patentee, is here with it. He wishes to sell the right in this state, and invites everybody to call at the Powell Block, on Peachtree street, and witness how it works.

It beats all burglar machines we have seen yet. If you let it be known that Wilson's gun is on the lot no burglar will go there.

ATLANTA, May 16, 1871.—At a meeting of R. E. Lee Fire Company, No. 4, last night, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of R. E. Lee Fire Company, No. 4, are due, and are hereby tendered, to the Penny, No. 2, Council, for their generous appropriation of fifteen hundred dollars to this company, to aid in equipping it for active service; to THE ATLANTA DAILY CONSTITUTION and Atlanta Daily Sun, for kind notices at various times; and to Captain M. T. Castleberry, for the free use of his hall as a place of meeting.

On motion, the Secretary was directed to forward copies of this resolution to THE CONSTITUTION and Sun of this city, and request publication.

Extract from minutes.

J. A. ANDERSON, Secretary.

MOLLIE HART.

Y. M. L. A.—The election yesterday resulted as follows:

President—E. F. Hoge.

Vice President—E. Y. Clarke.

Secretary—G. H. Hammond.

Treasurer—D. G. Jones.

Directors—Henry Jackson, Albert Hape, W. T. Newman, M. H. Sisson, M. J. Clarke, Olin Wellborn, Sidney Dell, B. B. Crew, J. T. Glenn.

The contest for President was very close, Col. Hoge beating his competitor, J. H. Flynn, Esq., only five votes.

The receipts from collection of dues amounted to more than two hundred dollars.

Everything passed off in the utmost good feeling. Much merriment and jollity prevailed. The new Board enter upon their duties on Monday next.

ATLANTA, GA., May 13, 1871.—At a meeting of the incorporators of the Atlanta, Decatur and Stone Mountain Turnpike Company, held this day, Mr. A. F. Hurt was appointed Chairman, and R. J. Lowry Secretary pro tem.

On motion, it was resolved that the company proceed to the election of permanent officers, which resulted in the choice of R. J. Lowry, President; W. J. Houston, Secretary and Treasurer; and John A. Grant, Engineer.

Stock approximating to $10,000 being reported as subscribed, and it being ascertained from the report of the Engineer that $30,000 would be required to complete the road to Decatur, the following gentlemen were appointed to solicit subscriptions: N. A. McLendon, R. J. Lowry, W. H. Weems, A. F. Hurt, G. T. Hurt, John A. Grant, William Burnet, John Boyce, and W. J. Houston; their report to be made on Saturday the 20th instant, at the office of the Secretary and Treasurer.

All subscribers to the stock, and all parties interested in the enterprise are requested to be present at this meeting. R. J. LOWRY, Pres't.

W. J. HOUSTON, Sec'y and Treas'r.

SEVERAL thousand people attended the picnic of the Hibernians yesterday to Norcross. A train composed of seven passenger coaches and three or four box cars was crowded. The post band accompanied them, discoursing most excellent music. The day was spent pleasantly and agreeably by all; nothing occurred to mar the harmony of the occasion. We were pleased to see so many of our German fellow-citizens present and participating. Dancing was commenced soon after the arrival, and continued up to almost the time of starting. A special cotillion was gotten up for the benefit of old pioneers, in which Thomas Haney, J. Toy, J. H. Flynn, T. W. McWest, C. W. O'Hubner, George O'Wallace, James O'Harris, Judge Daniel McPittman, and W. R. O'Hanleiter participated.

"Uncle Jimmy" O'Harris not only performed great feats as a dancist, but gave occular proof of slight-of-hand skill on the fiddle. The great fiddler, Col. Thos. Lowe, also made sweet music.

The Irish Norns, Marys, Kathrines and Mageles made many a heart ache with their witching smiles.

Towards the close, Hon. John H. Flynn introduced the Mayor of Norcross, Cousin John Thrasher, in a few appropriate remarks. Cousin John responded in one of his most eloquent efforts.

A large number dined at Thrasher's, and got a fine dinner, as only Cousin John knows how to get up.

Many carried their baskets, and with their friends enjoyed a nice feast.

The crowd returned last night, convinced that the Hibernian Picnic was THE success of the season.

The Sisters of Mercy, with a portion of their school, went on a picnic excursion to Stone Mountain.

THE typographical errors in the following letter, as it first appeared in a city cotemporary, made it farcical. We therefore republish it corrected:

Atlanta—Its Name—A Mooted Question Settled.

Atlanta, Georgia, May 9, 1871—Mr. W. R. Hanleiter—DEAR SIR: In answer to your note asking me to give you some information relative to the naming of Atlanta, I will state that in the year 1845, J. Edgar Thompson, Esq., the present distinguished Civil Engineer and Railroad king, was the Chief Engineer of the Georgia Railroad from Augusta to its junction with the Western and Atlantic Railroad, then known as Marthasville. At that date I was the Superintendent and Resident Engineer of the finished portion of the road from Augusta to Covington, and it became a part of my duty to arrange the freight lists, and to notify the public of the opening of the road from Covington to Marthasville.

I was not satisfied with the name given a point that, even at that early day, had become somewhat notorious by the Hon. John C. Calhoun, who, on passing through to the Memphis Convention, prophesied a great city in the future. I wrote to Mr. Thompson, who then resided in Madison, asking him to think of a name that would suit the place better. His reply was in substance as follows: "Eureka—Atlanta, the terminus of the Western and Atlantic Railroad—Atlantic masculine, Atlanta feminine—a coined word, and if you think it will suit adopt it." I was delighted with the suggestion, and in a few days issued the circulars adopting the name, and had them very generally distributed throughout Georgia and Tennessee, and at the next session of the Legislature the act of Incorporation was changed by inserting Atlanta in place of Marthasville.

Yours truly,

RICHARD PETERS.

THE Macon Telegraph and Messenger notices the query of "Charles Augustus," relative to a young gent coming to the table "in his dressing gown and slippers," and remarks:

"'Charles Augustus' should not be so squeamish. Suppose the 'young man' should take it into his head to come down to dinner in only his night shirt, as was the custom of that shining light of lolity and model of temperance, the Hon. Dick Yates, who has just retired from the United States Senate, while boarding at Willard's Hotel, in Washington City? In that case, now, we should sympathize with 'Charles Augustus.' But are we to understand that this 'dressing gown and slipp'rs' custom is common in Atlanta, or is this only a sporadic case?"

In reply to the query of Brother Clisby, we would state that the instance mentioned is sporadic, and not likely to become an epidemic. In fact, we think the case has been successfully cured by "heroic" practice.

THE ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC RAILROAD being now finished into the Indian Territory to a point about three hundred and forty miles southwest from St. Louis, is now the shortest, quickest and cheapest route to all points in Southwest Missouri, Southern Kansas, Northern Arkansas and the Indian Territory. The Company has 1,500,000 acres of valuable lands along the line of the road, which they are offering for sale at prices which range from $2.00 to $6.00 per acre, and Southern people who are going west with a view of securing a western home, would probably find the locality of this road preferable to a more northerly climate. Mr. J. F. Thompson, agent, is now in this city, and we understand has made arrangements to have through coupon tickets put on sale at this place.

INSURANCE.—Mr. Local: I desire to suggest that business men, before insuring with any company, first ascertain whether or not losses are promptly and honestly paid by said company. A most enterprising and honest citizen of West End recently sustained a heavy loss. If the loss has not already been paid, I hope it will be done without further delay, otherwise that company and agency will lose business. A MERCHANT UP TOWN.

MARTIN'S Georgia Reports, nine volumes for sale by Phillips & Crew. Also just received, The Holcombs, Gint's Baby, Dame Europas' School, Teuton's Quest, Our Girls, Old Fashioned Boy, and other late publications.

Local and Business Notices.

IN our rambles through the city yesterday we noticed hand-bills posted about, calling the attention of persons to Messrs. I. L. Falk & Co.'s Clothing establishment, on Whitehall street. They are selling off their immense stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, etc., at net New York manufacturing cost to close business. We called on them to satisfy ourselves if they meant what they said in their placards. We were shown through their Stock by the gentlemanly proprietor, and must confess we were astonished at the very low prices asked for outfits. We purchased as long as our cash held out. Merchants from the country would find it greatly to their advantage by calling early and supplying their stock, extra inducements being offered. We regret, exceedingly, to hear of their intention of leaving Atlanta, Messrs. F. & Co. being one of our leading live business houses in this city.

THE reasons why Dooley's Yeast Powder is preferred to any other baking powder in market, are owing to its perfect purity, quality, quantity and economy. The ingredients are strictly free from deleterious substances, and hence the full strength of each are obtained, and the results are uniform every time it is used. This cannot be the case in those of ordinary manufacture, and for proof of our assertion we simply ask those who have never used Dooley's Yeast Powder to give it a trial. Your grocer keeps it. Dooley & Brothers, manufacturers, 69 New street, New York. may14–d1w

"SURE POP."—Have you seen Sure Pop? If not hunt him up and have a talk with him. He is a philanthropist and a patriot; he is in favor of driving all the way from New York city on the grand mission of promoting these two great principles. He comes to clean our city of rats, mice, roaches and bugs, and as he is one of the "never fail" kind, we do not doubt but that the high and the low, the rich and the poor will vote blessings on his head, and follow him with prayers for his health, happiness, long life and good luck. The greatest rat poison of the day is the invention of Prof. Isaacsen, of New York, to whom we allude above. He calls it "Sure Pop," and the most prejudiced person will be more than satisfied in the use of even one box, that it is indeed sure pop as a rat destroyer. It is sought for and greedily eaten as soon as placed within their reach, and when eaten they immediately seek discover that their end is nigh and they seek a resting and a burial place as far from their old homes as possible. Try a box of "Sure Pop," and we stake our reputation that you will feel yourself more than paid "Sure Pop."

$100,000! $100,000!—Aiken premium land sale;

$100,000 to be distributed to share holders. Five dollars will purchase a share, including a work of art worth five dollars. The Derby farm property to be distributed embraces the largest Vineyard and Orchard in the South. Unequalled climate! Peaceable country! Generous soil! The salubrious and health-giving climate of Aiken has given it the name of "The Saratoga of the South."

$95,000 in premiums presented to shareholders.

$100,000 in real estate and greenback prizes to be distributed to shareholders.

94 Real Estate Prizes worth from $300 to $25,000.

522 greenback prizes from $5 to $1,000.

Only 19,000 shares will be issued. One share in every thirty-one will draw a prize.

This real estate property, conveyed by deed of trust to the Committee who are to conduct the drawing, is to be transferred by them to the fortunate shareholders as soon as the remaining shares are sold.

The drawing will take place according to the published programme. The day of the drawing will be announced by telegram to the associated press. A small sum invested now may secure a fortune. Every shareholder may rest assured of equal justice, and that this scheme, unlike many others, is "fair, square and honest."

Money received after the books are closed will be promptly returned. For full particulars, as embraced in revised pamphlet, address

The latest news from Paris is that the Communists claim to have repulsed the Versaillists at Neuilly.

Gen. Mason's chief of staff has been arrested.

La Liberte says the Versaillists entered Paris through breaches made at Portes Maillot and Auteuil; and an entry at Port du Jour is imminent.

A special dispatch says Clusert and Megy have been released.

An armistice at Vanvres has been arranged for Wednesday to allow the people to move.

The Germans are concentrating forces toward Paris.

The fall of Fort Montrouge is imminent.

The western and southwestern arondissements of Paris are uninhabitable. There is great loss of life and property in these districts. The Tricolor is not flying from Fort Vanvres. Of the mechanics over forty were compelled to work on the defenses. A new military commander succeeds Deleschuse.

The Central Committee of safety has absorbed all power of the various committees.

Gen. Henri has been appointed Minister of War.

The new general commands the forces between Port au Jour and Avenue Wagram.

Arrangements were completed for the destruction of a column in Place Vendome, about dusk last night, when a member of the Commune appeared with an order to postpone the demolition to two o'clock to-day saying as an act of justice, decreed by the Commune, it should be performed in daylight.

It is apprehended that the concussion of the fall will break the sewers and ruin the foundations of the buildings.

FRANCE.

VERSAILLES, May 15, Night.—It is now determined that the assault shall take place to-morrow night.

The breach near Anteuil gate is wide enough to admit two omnibusses.

Twenty-eight thousand projectiles were hurled into Paris within the last twenty-four hours.

THE CUMMING HIGH SCHOOL.

A DESCRIPTION OF CUMMING, FORSYTH COUNTY.

CUMMING, GA., May 12, 1871.

Editor Constitution: Having decided, from the frequent notices of schools, colleges, etc., that I see in your paper, that you are a representative man and enterprising journalist, I venture to say something of the Cumming High School. This school, as some of your numerous readers are apprised, is located at Cumming, Forsyth county, forty miles a little east of north from Atlanta, and eleven miles west of Buford on the Atlanta and Richmond Air-Line Railroad, and is in charge of Professor James W. Vincent, of Bartow county, assisted by Professors J. L. Willburn, late of Tunnel Hill, F. W. Ballenger, C. B. Vincent and Miss M. R. Bell as literary department, Miss Sallie C. Tripp, assisted by Miss M. E. Bell, in the music department, Miss Lou Upsher, drawing, painting and embroidery. We think it would be hard to get a better selection of teachers and assistants—all being gentlemen and ladies in the full sense, persevering and industrious, two very important considerations. Professor Vincent, to whom the public look to for the success of the school, has proven himself competent to the task.

This school was opened in January last, a new thing in this community, but the number of students steadily increased up to the beginning of the second quarter, when it numbered about 150 students. A fine beginning this, and all pleased and well satisfied. About this time the mumps make their appearance, which has taken quite a number from school for a short time, making the attendance limited. The 19th instant closes the present session; a vacation of four weeks, and it will again be resumed on the 19th of June, when we hope to see the number of students increased. We have a good school, instruction perfect, no trouble or pains are spared to advance pupils, and promote their moral as well as intellectual welfare. Tell your readers to send on their sons and daughters, they will be cared for, and I feel confident will return home satisfied with the advancement made. A few words as to the place, health and citizens, and I will be done. Cumming is a high, rolling village, three miles west of Sawnee mountain, good water and very healthy.

It is a quiet village, of about four hundred inhabitants, plain industrious and unassuming; but all who conduct themselves properly are respected. No retail liquor shop is now licensed in the place, and it is hoped there will be no necessity for one again soon. Board can be had in respectable families at eight dollars per scholastic month, exclusive of lights, fuel and washing, which can be had at reasonable figures. When we consider this, the location at a quiet village away from railroads, the cheapness of tuition, for which I respectfully refer to printed circulars, etc., it is certainly the place to get an education, and at less cost than any other school in Georgia. Many other things might be said in commendation of this school, teachers, location, etc., but my object being to deal fairly with all, and not in the least to exaggerate, I close by saying I am no teacher, and only feel the interest any parent should who has sons and daughters to educate. C.

READ! READ! READ!!! Health, beauty and happiness restored to modern womanhood, by using Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator or Woman's Best Friend.

☞ Sold by every Druggist in Charlotte, N. C., and by Druggists generally. ☜

We were kindly furnished the following extract from a letter to Dr. F. Scarr, Druggist, of this city:

STANLEY COUNTY, N. C.

Dr. F. Scarr—DEAR SIR: When in your town I asked you for something for my wife. You sold me a bottle of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, or Woman's Best Friend. Please put me up one dozen bottles of the same, as the one I got from you has got my wife finely well. You would not know her now; she has got stout and healthy and as red as a rose. As others are needing it please send me one dozen bottles. ***

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 23, 1871.

Dr. J. H. Bradfield—DEAR SIR: We cheerfully bear testimony to the efficacy and popularity of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator. Among a number of cases it has benefitted in this community, we mention that of a married lady. She was a sufferer from womb disease; had excessive and disagreeable flow of whites; was weak and languid. She was induced to try the Regulator, and after taking the second bottle she is sound and well. Her health and elasticity of spirits have returned, and she has gained many pounds in weight; feels altogether like a new being. Yours very respectfully,

I beg leave to call the attention of the reader to testimonials in favor of the Schnapps:

I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect precisely pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore obtainable, and as such may be safely prescribed by physicians. DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 1.—I feel that we have now an article of gin suitable for such cases as that remedy is adapted to. DR. J. W. BRIGHT.

"Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, etc.

I take great pleasure in bearing highly ereditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it. Having a natural tendency to the mucous surfaces, with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant,
CARL A. LEAS, M. D., New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov. 21, 1867—UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present: DEAR SIR—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the "Schiedam Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

CHEMICAL AND TECHNICAL LABORATORY, 18 EXCHANGE PLACE, NEW YORK, Nov. 25, 1867.—Udolpho Wolfe, Esq.: DEAR SIR—The undersigned have carefully and thoroughly analyzed a sample of your "Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health. From the result of our examination, we consider the article one of superior quality, healthful as a beverage, and effectual in its medicinal qualities.
Respectfully yours,
(Signed) ALEX. THIEDE, Chemist.

7-30 GOLD LOAN
OF THE
Northern Pacific Railroad.
RAPID PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

THE building of the Northern Pacific Railroad (begun July last) is being pushed forward with great energy from both extremities of the line. Several thousand men are employed in Minnesota and on the Pacific coast. The grade is nearly completed 266 miles westward from Lake Superior; trains are running over 130 miles of finished road, and track laying is rapidly progressing toward the eastern border of Dakota. Including its purchase of the St Paul and Pacific Road, the Northern Pacific Company now has 413 miles of completed road, and by September next this will be increased to at least 560.

A Good Investment.—Jay Cooke & Co. are now selling, and unhesitatingly recommend, as a Profitable and perfectly Safe investment, the First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. They have 30 years to run, bear Seven and Three-Tenths per cent. gold interest, (more than 8 per cent. currency,) and are secured by first and only mortgage on the ENTIRE ROAD AND ITS EQUIPMENTS, and also, as fast as the Road is completed, on 23,000 Acres of Land to every mile of track or 500 Acres for each $1,000 Bond. They are exempt from United States Tax; Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; Denominations: Coupons, $100 to $1,000; Registered, $100 to $10,000.

Lands for Bonds.—Northern Pacific 7-30's are at all times receivable AT TEN PER CENT. ABOVE PAR, in exchange for the Company's Lands, at their lowest cash price. This renders them practically INTEREST BEARING LAND WARRANTS.

Sinking Fund.—The proceeds of all sales of Lands are required to be devoted to the re-purchase and cancellation of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Company. The Land Grant of the Road exceeds Fifty Million Acres. This immense Sinking Fund will undoubtedly cancel the principal of the Company's bonded debt before it falls due. With their ample security and high rate of interest, there is no investment, accessible to the people, which is more PROFITABLE OR SAFE.

Exchanging U. S. Five-Twenties.—The success of the New Government 6 per cent. Loan will compel the early surrender of United States 6 per cents. Many holders of Five-Twenties are now exchanging them for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties, thus realizing a handsome profit, and greatly increasing their yearly income.

Other Securities.—All marketable Stocks and Bonds will be received at their highest current price in exchange for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties EXPRESS CHARGES on Money or Bonds received, and on Seven-Thirties sent in return, will be paid by the Financial Agents.
